Our New Location

Gives Us a Distinct Advantage in Serving Our Trade

The building is situated and constructed ideally for our use. We have always desired a corner location with side doors for receiving freight and delivering goods, thus not interfering with the front of the store and blocking main passage. We've wanted plenty of light and air and convenient arrangement for working rapidly and turning out orders quickly. We've wanted "the entire store on display" with all goods compactly arranged. We've wanted screens and glass protection of all goods. We've wanted everything clean and sanitary; no filth, no flies, no vermin, no cuddy-holes or catch-all places. We've wanted a cool place for our canned goods, cereals and other things affected by hot weather, which we have in our large basement.

We have all these things in our new store and are delighted with them, glad in our own behalf and glad for our customers. Our New Market is receiving splendid patronage and customers are continually telling us how pleased they are with our meats and pleased that we carry BEST QUALITY OF MEATS of all kinds, and handle them in the very cleanest way. Come to see us.

MURDER IN THE FIRST DEGREE

Such Is Verdict of Jury in Beattie's Case—Lawyers Say Little Chance for New Trial.

[By Associated Press.]
Chesterfield Court House, Va., Sept. 9.—Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., who was convicted of murder in the first degree last night, had a flicker of a smile on his pallid face as he looked at two newspaper men this morning. Somewhat hopeful but sorrow bent, the elder Beattie visited his boy today.

The verdict was not a surprise to the people of the neighborhood.

Many prominent lawyers think there is little chance that the court of appeals will grant Beattie a new trial.

Verdict Reached After Prayer.

Chesterfield Court House, Va., Sept. 9.—Twelve Virginia farmers knelt at dusk last night in the obscurity of the small jury room of the Chesterfield courthouse, praying fervently that they might pass judgment aright on Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., indicted for the murder of his wife. Grimly determined they arose a moment later and silently one by one recorded a unanimous verdict of "guilty."

Pausing in solemn contemplation for fifty-eight minutes, weighing carefully the meaning of their decision and once more on bended knees asking divine assistance that they might not err, they filed into the hushed stillness of a crowded courtroom and with startling suddenness twelve voices, instead of the usual one of the foreman, spoke the single word, "guilty." It was almost a shout.

The spectre of death which stalked the Middlethian turnpike on July 18, last, when the life of Mrs. Louise Owen Beattie was taken away with the single report of a shotgun, stared hard at the young husband, ready to claim its victim by electrocution Friday, November 24, next; but the prisoner returned the gaze, unswerving and unafraid.

The court of appeals, to be sure, will be asked to grant a writ of error and a new trial.

Young Beattie, cognizant of the legal weapons yet at his disposal, did not surrender. Instead he consoled his broken-down father, white-haired and wrinkled, and comforted him as he whispered:

"I haven't lost yet, father."

CONDITION OF COTTON CROP SEPTEMBER 5TH

State Department Says Correspondents Report One Per Cent Falling Off Since Government Report.

[By Associated Press.]
Austin, Texas, Sept. 9.—The state agricultural department today announced that replies received from six hundred and forty-five correspondents show the condition of the Texas cotton crop on September 5 as 67 per cent, against 68 per cent, which was the government report for August 28. The state report gives the August ginnings as 421,005 bales, against 240,877 up to the same date last year.

COL. ASTOR AND MISS FORCE MARRIED

Found a Retired Baptist Preacher—Carpenter Who Performed the Ceremony.

[By Associated Press.]
New York, Sept. 9.—Col. John Jacob Astor and Miss Madeline T. Force were married here this morning by Rev. Edward S. Straight, a retired Baptist minister of Providence, R. I. The ceremony was performed at Beechwood, the summer home of Colonel Astor here.

Rev. Straight resigned the pastorate of a small Baptist church in Rhode Island many years ago and has worked as a carpenter since, supplementing his wages by what fees he received from performing marriage ceremonies.

Colonel Astor and his bride left immediately on his private yacht, their destination being unknown.

SEAWALL BOULEVARD COMPLETED TODAY

Governor of Texas in Auto Leads Procession Over Galveston's Four Mile Driveway.

[By Associated Press.]
Galveston, Texas, Sept. 9.—At 5 o'clock p. m. today the seawall boulevard will be completed and opened to traffic, the last link of the four-mile driveway being completed. Governor Colquitt in an auto will lead the procession.

This is the final step in the completion of the seawall, which with the boulevard cost over three million dollars.

RAIN IN THE PANHANDLE.

[By Associated Press.]
Dalhart, Texas, Sept. 9.—It has been raining generally over Northwest Texas during the past twenty-four hours.

WILL NOT LEAVE TEXAS

Senator Bailey Assures Friends That He Will Not Reside in Either New York or Washington.

[By Associated Press.]
Gainesville, Texas, Sept. 9.—Last night's report that Senator Bailey will not leave Texas at the end of his term, but will practice law in some Texas city, is regarded here as has been practically decided, was the outcome of yesterday's conference.

It is not yet certain that Senator Bailey will cancel all of his state speaking dates.

A Gainesville special to the Houston Post says:

Senator Bailey will not remove to New York nor remain in Washington after he retires from the senate in 1913, but will continue to reside in Texas. Furthermore, nothing can induce him to reconsider his withdrawal. His official career will end with his present term.

These positive statements were made this evening by several of the senator's friends who came this morning and spent the day with him. They were Col. R. M. Johnston of Houston, Hon. John L. Wortham of Austin, Judge Nelson Phillips and J. J. Simmons of Dallas and Clarence Ousley of Fort Worth.
